

2023 KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

TAIT & Associates, Inc.

TOM TAIT
CEO

TREVOR TAIT
Managing Director

In addition to his company duties, in November 2010, Tom was elected Mayor of Anaheim and re-elected to his second term in November 2014. He was termed out of office in December of 2018. Tom ran on a platform of bringing the values of kindness and freedom to the culture of the city.

Tom received his Bachelor of Science from the University of Wyoming and an M.B.A and Law degree from Vanderbilt University. Tom and his wife Julie have four grown children and nine grandchildren. They have been married for 40 years.

Trevor Tait is the Managing Director of Tait & Associates, Inc. and Affiliated Companies. Tait is a 3rd generation family-owned business that has been Headquartered in Orange County for 58 years. The core businesses focus primarily on engineering and environmental services, with offices throughout the Western United States. In addition to running and managing the operating businesses, Trevor Co-Founded the Tait Development Company which is currently developing multiple projects throughout the Western US, including the 375 acre former Coyote Canyon Landfill in Newport Coast, CA, in Partnership with the County of Orange.

Trevor is a member of the Board of Directors for Pretend City Children's Museum in Irvine, and is a Board Member for the YPO (Young President's Organization) Cal Coast Chapter in Orange County. He received his Bachelor's Degree in Civil Engineering from Vanderbilt University. He lives in Dana Point with his wife and two children.