Wishing You a Festive Season Wrapped in Love and Topped with Joy from Hyatt Regency Huntington Beach Resort & Spa, your holiday destination

The holidays come alive at Hyatt Regency Huntington Beach Resort & Spa, kicking off with its traditional Thanksgiving buffet. Guests can take in holiday themed lights and its annual lobby sand sculpture. Plan a relaxing staycation amid ocean views and Spanish-inspired architecture. This prime beachfront location is perfect to celebrate the holidays with multi-generational family gatherings, award-winning restaurants, family suites, poolside cabanas and curated beach bonfires. For those who anticipate a little holiday stress, Pacific Waters Spa, offers seasonal themed treatments and wellness experiences throughout the holiday season. This SoCal getaway is just a five-minute walk over the bridge to 10-miles of sandy beach, the iconic Huntington Beach Pier, and Pacific City.

Explore a wide range of dining experiences from elegant to casual to poolside. If you are planning smaller holiday events, please consider Watertable for gatherings of all sizes. There are three private dining areas available for various size groups. Pete's Sunset Grille will be converted to Pete's Christmas Vacation – a month-long pop-up, with an abundance of holiday themed décor that is perfect for your year-end get together. Christmas and New Year's Eve special menus will be available at Watertable and holiday-themed specials at Pete's.

Gift cards are available for all these experiences and more!

Celebrate the Season at Hyatt Regency Newport Beach

Holiday parties, staycations and more

The iconic Hyatt Regency Newport Beach is transformed to a winter wonderland with holiday lights, cozy outdoor fire pits and a massive lobby fireplace creating the perfect holiday getaway. Whether you are planning a large holiday gathering or an intimate lunch or dinner for your business, friends or multi-generational family celebration, Hyatt Regency Newport Beach has a variety of celebratory spaces.

Located on Jamboree Road on the Back Bay and nestled amongst 26 acres of lush and mature landscaping, the property is a toast to the Southern California topography creating a refreshing atmosphere for all of those that visit. Renowned locally as 'The Newporter', as it was previously named, the hotel's team has been creating memories for over five decades for both guests and local residents alike. The hotel is considered a landmark and after a recent lobby renovation has launched the Newporter Lounge as an homage to the original resort property. The hotel's team, many who have been here for 30+ years continue to delight multiple generations.

There are multiple venues to choose for an event, including ballrooms, smaller spaces and the Wine Cellar (where John Wayne once held poker games). For smaller groups, our signature restaurant Shor is available. Stay tuned for Thanksgiving, Christmas Eve, Christmas and New Year's special menus at Shor.
