STORY

What began as a small effort to help youth in crisis has grown into Waymakers, a beacon of hope and strength for those who need it most. Every day, we provide safe shelter for vulnerable youth, help families rebuild after crisis, stand beside victims of violent crime in their pursuit of justice, and empower communities through prevention and education.

Your support gives hope where it's needed and builds strength that lasts a lifetime.

While enjoying the fun, participants also learn about and support the life-saving work of the American Cancer Society, with funds fueling early-detection education, innovative research, and essential patient support programs. It's a one-of-a-kind experience where community, celebration, and the fight against cancer come together to make a real difference.

ANNOUNCING THE CLAVIS FOUNDATION CHAIR FOR WELLNESS

Rady Children's Health Orange County, formerly CHOC, proudly established its first-ever endowed chair, the Clavis Foundation Chair for Wellness. This historic milestone was made possible through the extraordinary generosity and vision of the Clavis Foundation, led by Tusdi Vopat and Stuart McClure, whose commitment to children's health is creating lasting impact for generations to come. The appointment names Dr. Michael Weiss as the inaugural chairholder.

Through the Clavis Foundation's remarkable support, Rady Children's Health Orange County will launch an integrative medicine program focused on addressing the root causes of illness and advancing intentional, whole-child wellness. Rady Children's Health Orange County is deeply grateful to Tusdi and Stuart for their partnership, leadership, and belief in what's possible when innovation and compassion come together—blazing new paths to improve pediatric health and well-being for children across the region.

19 Years of Impact and Innovation

In our 19th year as a proud Orange County nonprofit, Kure It® Cancer Research is building for the future, expanding our impact through bold growth, new partnerships, and a renewed commitment to funding lifesaving science. We exist to bridge the gap between visionary researchers and the critical support they need to accelerate breakthroughs for patients faster. With a focus on underfunded cancers, we are fueling innovative projects at leading institutions nationwide. The mission remains clear: fund promising research now, so more lives can be saved sooner.

"There is a critical need for funding towards cancer research. The programs Kure It funds are high risk, high reward and support the work of clinical investigators in southern California and across the U.S. By strategically investing in bold, innovative research, Kure It assists by accelerating new discoveries for patient care, diagnosis, and breakthroughs for tomorrow."

– Sumanta Pal, M.D.

Professor, Department of Medical Oncology and Therapeutics Research, City of Hope

STRENGTHENING KURE IT'S $1 MILLION FUNDING GOAL

The generosity shown at our 2025 Gala moved us closer to meeting our $1 million commitment to accelerate research for underfunded cancers, bringing urgent resources to scientists who need them now.

POWERING RESEARCH ACROSS LEADING CANCER CENTERS

In 2025 alone, your contributions helped support numerous cutting-edge projects at some of the nation's top NCI-Designated Cancer Centers, including:

Play, connect, and make a meaningful difference in the lives of those who need it most.

TOGETHER WE CAN PREVENT CHILD SEXUAL EXPLOITATION

Sex trafficking in Orange County is growing. Local children, (83% are U.S. citizens) average age of 14, are the fastest-growing victims. Our county is a high-demand area for trafficking due to our large population, affluence, and thriving tourism industry. Almost 90% of trafficked youth had a prior child abuse investigation, vulnerabilities that traffickers exploit.

That's why Olive Crest has launched a county-wide PROMiSE Initiative and invite you and local businesses to join our council in preventing child abuse and sexual exploitation.

BISHOP'S AWARD FOR EXEMPLARY BUSINESS INTEGRITY HONOREES

DANIEL WALKER
 Executive Chairman of the Board,
 Farmers & Merchants Bank

Daniel serves as Executive Chairman of the Board of Farmers & Merchants Bank. He began his career with F&M Bank in 1974, holding various positions before becoming President in 2002. Drawing on a century of tradition and a lifetime of experience, he guided the Bank to nearly $11.4 billion in assets as of June 30, 2025, establishing it among the nation's top banks. Rooted in a family legacy of hard work, Daniel learned early the value of diligence and service above self. He serves on multiple nonprofit boards, including the YMCA of Greater Long Beach and the Nell J. Redfield Foundation, and is an emeritus director of the Memorial Medical Center Foundation. Daniel and his wife, Linda, live in Orange and attend Christ Cathedral.

FASHION & FLOURISHING FUTURES IN OC

HARVESTERS RAISE $2M AT ANNUAL FASHION SHOW & LUNCHEON

Congratulations to the Harvesters members on their incredible success with the 2025 Fashion Show & Luncheon. The event raised a net of $2 million to support Second Harvest Food Bank of Orange County in providing nutritious food for the 1 in 9 individuals—and 1 in 8 children—in Orange County facing food insecurity. The event drew 350 generous donors, community leaders and supporters who gathered to raise funds for this critical cause.

The day began in the Renée and Henry Segerstrom Concert Hall with a dazzling champagne reception hosted by Mikimoto, the world-renowned luxury jeweler. Guests then moved to the Samueli Theater for a highly anticipated runway show featuring over 40 stunning looks from eight celebrated brands, with first-time participants Eleventy and Thom Browne joining returning favorites Ferragamo and Stella McCartney, alongside Oscar de la Renta, Balmain, Lanvin and MaxMara.

The event culminated in the Concert Hall with a gourmet luncheon where tables were adorned with larger-than-life blush-colored lotus centerpieces that rose above elegant tablescapes, filling the luncheon with whimsical beauty. The energy continued late into the day with an exclusive after party at the prestigious Park Club, where guests celebrated the community's unified effort to support the Food Bank's vision of an Orange County with food and nutritional security for all.

We extend our deepest gratitude to event sponsors South Coast Plaza and City National Bank, along with our generous underwriters, partners, donors and volunteers. Their support ensures that 100% of donations go toward the Food Bank's mission to provide dignified, equitable and consistent access to nutritious food for those in need in Orange County. Thank you, Harvesters – we are deeply grateful!

From Survival to Possibility

The Teen Project is California's only licensed residential treatment center solely dedicated to survivors of sexual exploitation. Unlike a shelter, it provides 40 hours per week of medical detox and intensive trauma therapy in a secure, residential setting. Licensed clinicians support young women—many pregnant, parenting, or formerly in foster care—on-site as they rebuild their lives.

National Philanthropy Day

NOVEMBER 2026

Organization: Association of Fundraising Professionals, Orange County Chapter

Website: www.npdoc.org/

National Philanthropy Day, hosted by the Association of Fundraising Professionals, Orange County Chapter (AFPOC), celebrates the people and partnerships that strengthen our community. As one of the nation's largest AFP chapters, AFPOC equips fundraisers with the education, professional community, and the support and advocacy they need to continue to elevate philanthropy in Orange County. Inspired by local philanthropist Doug Freeman, National Philanthropy Day became a federally recognized observance in 1985—an acknowledgment of philanthropy's essential role in American civic life. Each year, we honor individuals and organizations whose generosity, collaborative spirit, and leadership help build a stronger, more resilient Orange County.

DECEMBER EVENTS

Segerstrom Center for the Arts 52nd Candlelight Concert

DECEMBER 4

Organization: Segerstrom Center for the Arts

Website: www.scfta.org

Segerstrom Center for the Arts spotlighted the next chapter of arts philanthropy at its 52nd Annual Candlelight Concert on Dec. 4, 2025, reaffirming a legacy that has shaped Orange County’s cultural landscape for more than five decades. Established in 1974 and predating the campus itself, Candlelight remains one of the region’s most prestigious philanthropic traditions. Led by co-chairs Jackie Glass and Elizabeth and Bart Asner, this year’s gala convened the community’s most influential arts champions and generated an extraordinary $6 million in support of the Center’s nonprofit artistic, educational, and community initiatives. Proceeds will advance programs such as the American Ballet Theatre William J. Gillespie School, Studio D: Arts School for All Abilities, and Education and Engagement efforts including The Cassin Promise. Guests were immersed in Riviera Noir glamour, complete with champagne sabrage, live jazz, and a vintage Palm Beach-inspired transformation of Segerstrom Hall.

A dazzling performance by Tony®, Emmy, and GRAMMY® Award winner Hugh Jackman anchored the evening, followed by fine dining, dancing, and late-night conversation—an elegant celebration of creativity, generosity, and lasting impact. Photo Credit Todd Rosenberg
